On 1st November 2015, Autodromo Hermanos Rodriguez in Mexico, newly renovated, played host to the first exhibition round of the F4 NACAM Championship, enjoying the excitement brought by the Mexican F1 Grand Prix, which was a huge success with around 293,000 spectators.

All players of Mexican Motorsport Industry were there for the occasion around the FIA president, Jean Todt, and vice-president, José Abed.

After a tough but successful first race, it was Australian Luis Leeds for team Ram2, already engaged in the FIA F4 Mygale Championship in Australia and 3rd of the Australian Formula Ford Championship, who came out on top. At the second place, is one of the driver of Esteban Gutierrez's team, Alexis Carreno for Martiga EG. Kart champion Giancarlo Vecchi for his team Vecchi complete this first podium.

Among different teams engaged, mostly Mexican, we note the presence of a team of Guyana led by Stanley Ming, his son Calvin finishes at the 4th place showing good performances throughout the weekend

First season of this new FIA F4 Mygale Championship will overlap 2015 and 2016 after this inaugural round in prologue of the Mexico Grand Prix. See you on 28th November for the second race, 1st official of the F4 NACAM Championship which will take place on the Puebla circuit.
