Recently engaged in the new F4 FIA NACAM Championship of Mexico, the team of Stanley Ming is the only one to represent Guyana. The driver, Calvin Ming, Stanley's son, announces a great season. He finished at the 4th place of the inaugural race that took place in opening of the F1 Grand Prix in Mexico last 1st November.

On November 13th, Estelle et Bertrand Decoster were at the official introduction of the FIA F4 Mygale in Georgetown, capital city of Guyana. This presentation, at the initiative of Stanley Ming, business man, entrepreneur, philanthropist and motor racing fanatic, was a success in front of an audience which included the Guyana Government Ministers of Finance, Foreign Affairs, Tourism, Public Infrastructure, and Communities, the Ambassadors of the USA, Mexico and Chile, along with potential sponsors, all of whom are supportive of further developing motorsport in the Caribbean and promoting a Championship Series for FIA F4, to start the development of the next generation of race cars drivers.
