

Sergio Pérez, famous F1 driver, impressed with the FIA F4 Mygale

The life of Formula 4 FIA Mygale - September 2015

The young pilot of Force India has tried the new FIA Formula 4 Mygale during the tenth anniversary of the Puebla circuit in Mexico.

Sergio Pérez, Formula 1 Mexican pilot of Force India, driving the FIA F4 Mygale

On last 12th September, Sergio Pérez took the opportunity to test out the new Mexican FIA Formula 4 Mygale which will open a new era in Mexican national motorsport and a lot of new perspectives.

“I am glad to see that Mexico is involved in this new series already whereby the youth could start their process to reach Formula 1 without leaving the country”, he told to the press.

30 years have passed without a single Mexican driver in Formula 1. Sergio Pérez never wants that to happen again. He is pleased that today the FIA Formula 4 Mygale opens the doors to more drivers in order to enable them to reach more easily the F1 and thus that Mexico was always represented.

After 3 laps, Sergio Pérez, gets out of the car and feels happy. He finds that the FIA Formula 4 Mygale is really comfortable to drive. The young pilot of Force India is convinced that this new category will develop and encourage the future generation of Mexican drivers for the future.

The first race of the Mexican FIA Formula 4 Mygale Championship will start in Mexico on 1st November 2015 during the Formula 1 Grand Prix.

